Rupesh Dandekar

Dear Rupesh:

Deloitte Consulting LLP (the “Employer”) is pleased to offer you employment as a Level Leader effective May 31, 2026 on the following terms and conditions (the “Agreement”):

PRELIMINARY MATTERS

1. Defined Terms. The italicized terms in this Agreement are defined in Exhibit A hereto.
2. Background Investigation; Immigration. This offer to employ you is subject to (a) your providing, to the extent not already provided, documentation that verifies your Employment eligibility in compliance with the requirements of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 and (b) an investigation into your background, including, without limitation, such matters as your prior employment and education as well as your character, general reputation, and personal characteristics, to the extent such investigation may be deemed necessary or has not previously been undertaken and satisfactorily completed.
3. Pre-existing Agreements or Arrangements. You warrant and agree that you have listed on Exhibit B all Pre-existing Agreements or Arrangements. The Employer expects you to abide by all restrictions or obligations that are contained in such Pre-existing Agreements or Arrangements and to avoid involvement, while employed by the Employer, in any matter that could pose a conflict as a result of confidential information or intellectual property obtained by you prior to your Employment. You further represent that none of these restrictions or obligations, including those set forth in any non-compete agreements with prior employers, is inconsistent with your acceptance of the Employer’s offer of Employment or your becoming, and serving as, a Level Leader of the Employer. To the extent applicable and if you are joining the Employer after having served as an employee or official of the United States Government or any state, municipal or local government, you further represent that: (1) you have disclosed your prior participation, if any, in any discussions or negotiations with, or decisions to award contracts to, the Deloitte U.S. Firms (as defined in Exhibit A under Deloitte Entity) while you were employed by the United States Government or any state, municipal or local government, and (2) you had either recused yourself or had not played an active role in the applicable United States Government or any state, municipal or local government agency’s decision to award any contracts to the Deloitte U.S. Firms while you were employed by the United States Government or any state, municipal or local government.

YOUR POSITION AS A LEVEL LEADER

4. Level Leader Duties. During your Employment, you will devote your best efforts and full-time attention to the performance of your duties as a Level Leader. You acknowledge this is a position of trust, and that in reliance upon the promises made by you in this Agreement, you will receive employment as a Level Leader, the compensation and other benefits received as a consequence thereof, access to Confidential Information (including trade secrets) and/or the opportunity to develop relationships with employees, agents, and business contacts (clients and others) of the Deloitte Entities for the purpose of developing goodwill for the Deloitte Entities and otherwise performing your duties as a Level Leader. You agree that your receipt of the foregoing would give you an unfair competitive advantage if your activities during Employment, and for a reasonable period thereafter, were not restricted as provided for in this Agreement.

5. At Will. You agree that your Employment is for no definite period of time and may be terminated, or your position, pay or duties changed, by the Employer at any time for any reason or no reason with or without notice in the Employer's absolute discretion. As an at-will employee, you may resign your position with the Employer at any time for any reason.

6. No Representation of Partnership. You acknowledge that the Employer has made no representations as to your future prospects with the Employer, such as consideration for managing director, partnership, or continuation as an employee.

YOUR COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

7. Salary and Bonus. The Employer will pay you compensation for services at such rate as may be fixed from time to time by the Employer in its sole discretion. The Employer may pay you additional compensation as a bonus, as the Employer may determine from time to time in its sole discretion.

8. Benefits. During your Employment, you will be entitled to participate in, and be subject to the terms and conditions of, those medical, pension or other benefit plans or programs generally available on an Employer-wide basis to other employees of the Employer, to the extent that you qualify under the provisions of any such plan or program. You will also receive benefits under a plan or program, as are generally accorded on an Employer-wide basis to Level Leaders to the extent that you qualify, under the provisions of any such plan or program, except that you will not be eligible to participate in the Leader Incentive Program to the extent you participate in any other bonus or incentive program. You understand and agree that these plans and other benefits are subject to change or termination by the Employer in its sole discretion. During your Employment, you will accrue a PTO allowance per calendar year in accordance with the Employer's policy and administrative practices.

PROTECTION OF OUR BUSINESS

9. Policy Compliance. You will comply with all professional, ethical, and Employer requirements, rules, regulations, policies, and practices, including, without limitation, the Employer's Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct and those rules and requirements relating to independence and Deloitte & Touche LLP's registration with the PCAOB (including the applicable independence policies of any Deloitte Entity).

10. Reporting of Proceedings. Except as provided by law and except as you have disclosed in writing on Exhibit C to this Agreement, you represent and warrant that you have no Proceedings to report. Should you become a subject of any Proceedings during your association with the Employer, you agree to immediately report, in writing, all relevant facts to the Chief Talent Officer and the Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer. You understand that your responses are subject to audit and review by the Employer and others in accordance with applicable professional, ethical, legal or Employer requirements, rules, regulations, policies, practices or other requests.

11. Confidentiality. You acknowledge that, by virtue of your Employment, you will acquire and be exposed to, have access to, make use of and/or create Confidential Information. Therefore, you agree to hold in trust and confidence all such Confidential Information. You will not disclose any such Confidential Information to anyone outside a Deloitte Entity without the prior written approval of an Authorized Signatory, except as required by your authorized duties for the Employer, nor access, use, disclose, reproduce, copy, store, transmit, transfer, delete, distribute, or misappropriate any such Confidential Information for any purpose other than for the benefit of a Deloitte Entity. You further agree not to reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile, misappropriate or otherwise attempt to gain unauthorized access to any such Confidential Information for any purpose other than for the benefit of a Deloitte Entity. However, you understand that this paragraph does not prohibit you from opposing an event that you reasonably and in good faith believe is a violation of law, including criminal conduct, discrimination, harassment or other unlawful employment practice, nor does this paragraph prohibit the reporting, without prior notice to the Employer, of such violations of federal, state or local law or regulation to, or discussing any such possible violations with, an attorney, law enforcement, or any governmental agency or entity authorized to receive such information, such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the state division or local commission on human rights, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, or the Department of Defense, including by initiating communications directly with or responding to any inquiry from or providing testimony before any such agency or entity, or to otherwise make disclosures protected under whistleblower provisions of federal law or regulation. You further understand that you do not need prior authorization to report or disclose violations of federal law or regulation to any such governmental agency or entity and you are not required to notify the Deloitte U.S. Firms that you have made such reports or disclosures.¹

Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood that at all times after your Employment ends, you are free to use information which is generally known in the trade or industry through no breach of this Agreement or other act or omission by you and that is not specific to the Employer's business (such as business transactions). If, and only if, the controlling state law applicable to you requires a time limit to be placed on restrictions concerning the post-Employment use of Confidential Information for the restriction to be enforceable, then this restriction on your use of Confidential Information

Information that is not a trade secret will expire two years after your Employment or other association with the Employer ends. This time limit will not apply to (a) Confidential Information that qualifies as a trade secret, or (b) third-party information. The Employer's trade secrets will remain protected for as long as they qualify as trade secrets under applicable law. Items of third-party information will remain protected for as long as allowed under the laws and/or separate agreements that make them confidential. Nothing in the foregoing shall be construed to permit you to recreate records of Confidential Information from memory or retain copies of Confidential Information in any form after your Employment ends. You understand that you should have no records of this kind in your possession or control with which to refresh your memory after your Employment ends.

12. Third-Party Information and Property. You agree that during your Employment, you shall not use or disclose any confidential information or intellectual property of any former employer or other person or entity without the prior written authorization of such employer, person or entity and the prior written consent of an Authorized Signatory. If you were to use or disclose any such confidential information or intellectual property without prior consent, and any of the Deloitte Entities become the subject of any claim from a third party regarding such unauthorized use or disclosure, you agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Deloitte Entities for any legal defense costs and/or damages related to any such claim.

13. Competing Activities and Conflict of Interest. During your Employment you will not, directly or through the direction or control of others, participate in or in any way render services or assistance to any business that is or may be competitive with a Deloitte Entity, whether or not for compensation, or engage in any conduct which might result in, or create the appearance of using your position for private gain or other than for the benefit of a Deloitte Entity, or otherwise create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, of interest with a Deloitte Entity. Such conduct shall include, but not be limited to, having an undisclosed financial interest in any vendor or supplier of a Deloitte Entity, accepting payments of any kind or gifts other than of a nominal value from vendors, clients or suppliers, or having an undisclosed relationship with a family member or other individual who is employed or associated with any entity in active or potential competition with a Deloitte Entity, and which creates a conflict of interest. You represent and warrant that you are not currently aware of any present or past violation of this provision.

14. Systems and Electronic Communications. You understand that while employed with a Deloitte Entity, you will use and have access to the Systems.

a. No Expectation of Privacy. You acknowledge that a Deloitte Entity has the right at any time to access, retrieve, delete, monitor, examine, use and/or disclose your Electronic Communications and information from (or about) you and the content, without notice to you, and that such Electronic Communications are considered part of a Deloitte Entity's business and client records and are not to be considered private or personal to you or any other Personnel. You further acknowledge that this right extends to Electronic Communications transmitted for either a business or personal purpose.

b. Right to Inspect Personal Devices. You agree, upon request from a Deloitte Entity that is based on its reasonable belief that (a) you may have Deloitte Property in electronic form in your possession, custody or control or (b) you may not be in compliance with one or more professional, ethical, and Employer requirements, rules, regulations, policies and practices, to allow a Deloitte Entity to inspect any of your personal or home computers, including smart phones, or tablet computers, or any device, media or location capable of storing electronic data, to determine whether any Deloitte Property resides on such computers, devices, media or locations and to permit a Deloitte Entity to remove such Deloitte Property.

c. Scope of Authorized Access. You agree that you are authorized to access the Systems only for approved business purposes and occasional personal use if such use does not interfere with your work responsibilities and other required business activities, business operations or Systems performance. However, you also acknowledge that such occasional personal use does not create an expectation of privacy as to any of your personal Electronic Communications and, as such, are Deloitte Property. You further acknowledge that you are not authorized to access the Systems for personal gain or any illegal or unethical use. You agree that under no circumstances are you authorized to access any of the Systems for the purpose of obtaining Deloitte Property for a competitor of a Deloitte Entity, transmitting Deloitte Property to you (e.g., emailing Confidential Information to your personal email address) or to a third party for purposes other than furthering the business objectives of a Deloitte Entity. You are not authorized to access the Systems to download a Deloitte Entity's Confidential Information or other Deloitte Property to removable media such as a CD Rom, disk or thumb drive other than as authorized for furthering the business objectives of a Deloitte Entity.

d. Prohibition of Password Sharing. You agree that you are not authorized to share your password with anyone other than an authorized representative of ITS, Talent, or the Office of General Counsel or to share the password for any client-provided email account with other U.S. Firm personnel or anyone else.

15. Ownership of Works.

a. You agree that the Employer owns all rights, title and interest in and to all Works.

b. You agree that all Works are deemed works made for hire under the United States copyright laws or equivalent laws of any applicable foreign jurisdiction, and all Intellectual Property Rights therein vest automatically in the Employer upon creation of the Works. You agree that, to the extent any Work is held not to be a work made for hire, you hereby irrevocably assign all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work to the Employer. You agree to keep and maintain adequate written records of all Works which shall be available to and remain the sole property of the Employer and, upon request of the Employer, to disclose any Works in order to permit the Employer to claim rights to which it may be entitled.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you acknowledge that the Employer from time to time may have agreements with other persons or with the United States Government or any state, municipal or local government, or agencies thereof, which impose obligations or restrictions on the Employer regarding Works. You agree to be bound by all such obligations and restrictions and to take all action necessary to discharge the obligations of the Employer thereunder.

c. You will at all times, even after termination of your Employment, do whatever the Employer reasonably requests of you, at the Employer's expense, to document the assignment of any Works to the Employer or to assist the Employer in pursuing, renewing, extending or assigning any Intellectual Property Rights, and otherwise perfecting, protecting and enforcing said Intellectual Property Rights in, any Works. You agree that, as between you and the Employer, the Employer shall be the sole author, inventor and owner of all such Works and Intellectual Property Rights therein throughout the world, and that the Employer shall have the sole right to seek copyright registrations, patents or trademark registrations, including all extensions and renewals thereof. You also hereby agree that you waive all moral rights in any Works.

d. During the 12-month period after termination of your Employment, you agree that any Intellectual Property you create or conceive that results from and is related to any work assigned to or performed by you for the Employer, or that was created using Deloitte Property, is a Work that is subject to Paragraph 15(b) above. For purposes of clarification, the foregoing provision is in addition to, and not in limitation of, any rights and remedies the Employer may have under the applicable laws protecting Intellectual Property of the Deloitte Entities.

16. Pre-existing Creations; Personal Creations. Your obligations in Paragraph 15 do not apply to Pre-existing Creations and Personal Creations. You warrant and agree that you have listed on Exhibit B all Pre-existing Creations. You acknowledge and agree that unless prohibited by applicable law, you will not assert any ownership rights against the Deloitte Entities, or their respective clients, with respect to any Pre-existing Creations unless they appear on Exhibit B and Exhibit B has been accepted and agreed to by an Authorized Signatory who has signed at the bottom of such Exhibit B. You further agree that you shall not use any Pre-existing Creations or Personal Creations in connection with your Employment without the prior written consent of an Authorized Signatory. To the extent that you use any Pre-existing Creations or Personal Creations in connection with your Employment, you agree that, except as otherwise provided in a written agreement executed by you and the Employer, you hereby grant to the Employer an irrevocable, royalty-free, perpetual, fully paid-up, transferable, sublicensable license to use, reproduce, distribute, display, perform, modify and create derivative works of and otherwise exploit such Pre-existing Creations or Personal Creations for any purpose including, but not limited to, client engagements. This Agreement's assignment provisions are limited to only those inventions that can be lawfully assigned by an employee to an employer. Some examples of state laws limiting the scope of assignable inventions are: Delaware Code Title 19 Section 805; Kansas Statutes Section 44-130; Minnesota Statutes 13A Section 181.78; New Jersey Rev. Stat. §34:1B-265; New York Labor Law § 203-f; North Carolina General Statutes Article 10A, Chapter 66, Commerce and Business, Section 66-57.1; Utah Code Sections 34-39-1 through 34-39-3, "Employment Inventions Act"; Washington Rev. Code, Title 49 RCW: Labor Regulations, Chapter 49.44.140. NOTICE: You acknowledge notice that to the extent one of the foregoing laws applies, your invention assignment agreement will not apply to an invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Employer was used and which was developed entirely on your own time, unless: (1) the invention relates directly to the business of the Employer or to the Employer's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (2) the invention results from any work performed by you for the Employer. Similarly, to the extent California Labor Code Section 2870, or Illinois 765 ILCS 1060/1-3, "Employee Patent Act", controls then the same notice will apply absent the word "directly" in part (1). You agree to advise the Employer promptly in writing of any Personal Creations that you believe meet the criteria of any of the foregoing laws and are not otherwise disclosed on Exhibit B.

17. Restrictions re: Clients. You acknowledge that, because of the nature of your work for a Deloitte Entity, your solicitation of certain clients related to your work for a Deloitte Entity would necessarily involve the unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information, and the proprietary relationships and goodwill of the Deloitte Entities, and, in the case of your serving of certain clients, could compromise the full compliance of the Employer or another Deloitte Entity with Rule 2-01, including, but not limited to, the implementation of certain provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, or other independence-related requirement of a regulatory body. Accordingly, during the period of your Employment and for a period of two years following the termination of your Employment for any reason, you will not, on your own behalf or on behalf of a competitor of a Deloitte Entity, directly or through the direction or control of others, solicit or attempt to solicit any business from any client or Prospective Client of a Deloitte Entity with which you had material contact and to which you provided (or participated in a proposal to provide) services. This restriction is limited to services which are similar to the kinds of services you provided or proposed to provide to the clients or Prospective Clients of the Employer or another Deloitte Entity during the two-year period prior to termination of your Employment. Material business contact is presumed present if you received commissions, bonuses, or other beneficial credit or attribution for business done with the client or you participated in or supervised communications with the client or Prospective Client (but not merely a mass mailing or “cold call” telephone or email solicitation) that is intended to result in, lead to, maintain, increase, facilitate or otherwise aid the sale or provision of products or services sold by the Employer.

18. Exceptions to Restrictions re: Clients. You understand that the obligations of Paragraph 17 will not apply for a period of three years after your start date or the date of your promotion or transfer to clients of a Deloitte Entity and/or certain specified kinds of services rendered to such clients that meet all of the following criteria: (a) are personal clients of yours who came to a Deloitte Entity solely to avail themselves of certain specified kinds of services rendered by you and only as a result of your own independent recruitment efforts, which a Deloitte Entity neither subsidized nor otherwise financially supported as part of a program of client development, (b) are listed on Exhibit D expressly by name with respect to client and with sufficient specificity with respect to the kinds of service(s) that you will be permitted to render, and (c) are accepted and agreed to as to their listing on Exhibit D by an Authorized Signatory who has signed at the bottom of such Exhibit D. You agree that after a period of three years from your start date or the date of your promotion or transfer, the Employer will have invested sufficient time, financial support and effort in developing and serving the clients listed on Exhibit D to support the application of the obligations of Paragraph 17 to those clients.

19. Future Employment with Clients. Except as otherwise provided herein, you understand that you are not prohibited from accepting employment with a client (or an affiliate of such client) of a Deloitte Entity. Before entering into substantive discussions with an Attest Client regarding any employment opportunity, you acknowledge and agree that during your Employment and for five years thereafter you must first notify ICN and obtain prior written approval from ICN. You acknowledge and understand that it is the intent of the Employer to interpret and apply this provision (a) in an effort to ensure the full compliance of the Deloitte Entities with Rule 2-01, including, but not limited to, the implementation of certain provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, (b) to serve the public interest, and (c) to protect the legitimate interests of the Deloitte Entities or their respective Attest Clients under Rule 2-01 in a manner that is no greater than is reasonably necessary to protect such interests and without being unduly harsh and oppressive to you and your interests in future employment with an Attest Client. Further, you acknowledge and agree that because of, among other things, the importance of the Deloitte Entities remaining in compliance with applicable independence rules, such approval may be withheld by ICN in the event that your employment with an Attest Client would, in the view of Deloitte & Touche LLP, be inconsistent with the provisions of Rule 2-01 or jeopardize the independence of a Deloitte Entity with respect to such Attest Client.

20. Restrictions re: Personnel and Contractors. You acknowledge that, because of the nature of your work for a Deloitte Entity, your solicitation of any Personnel or contractors of the Deloitte Entities would necessarily involve the unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information or the proprietary relationships and goodwill of the Deloitte Entities. Accordingly, during your Employment and for two years thereafter, you will not, directly or through the direction or control of others, (a) solicit or attempt to solicit, or participate in the solicitation of or any attempt to solicit any Personnel to leave a Deloitte Entity, or to join any firm or business with which you may be or become affiliated, or (b) cause a contractor of a Deloitte Entity with whom you had contact or a relationship while at the Employer or a Deloitte Entity to cease providing services to, with or on behalf of the Deloitte Entity. Further, nothing in this paragraph is intended or to be construed as a prohibition against general advertising such as “help wanted” ads that are not targeted at any Deloitte Entity employee.

21. Post-Employment Restrictions re: Deloitte Property. Upon termination of your Employment, you (a) will not use or disclose Deloitte Property, including, but not limited to, Confidential Information and Works, for any purpose, (b) will not retain or take with you any Deloitte Property, (c) will immediately deliver to a Deloitte Entity at any location that it designates, at your expense, within five business days after the termination of your Employment or on an alternate date designated by a Deloitte Entity, any Deloitte Property that you may then or thereafter hold or control, and (d) agree, upon request from a Deloitte Entity that is based on its reasonable belief that you may have Deloitte Property in electronic form in your possession, custody or control, to allow a Deloitte Entity to inspect any of your personal or home computers, including smart phones, or tablet computers, or any device, media or location capable of storing electronic data, to determine whether any Deloitte Property resides on such computers, devices, media or locations and to permit a Deloitte Entity to remove such Deloitte Property.

OTHER POST-EMPLOYMENT OBLIGATIONS

22. Transition of Work and Cooperation. Upon termination of your Employment for any reason, you will cooperate with a Deloitte Entity in all matters relating to the completion of pending work and its orderly transfer. You will also cooperate fully with a Deloitte Entity in connection with any threat of or actual legal proceeding against a Deloitte Entity or any client, customer or licensor of a Deloitte Entity arising out of any matter with or of which you had contact or knowledge during your Employment.

23. Notification of Post-Employment Obligations. You agree that prior to accepting employment or affiliation with another firm or business you will advise such firm or business of your duties and obligations under this Agreement. After your Employment ends, you agree that a Deloitte Entity shall be permitted to advise any firm or business with which you have accepted an offer of employment or affiliation concerning your duties and obligations under this Agreement.

24. Certification. You agree that during or after your Employment you will, if requested, provide written certification in such form as the Employer may require that you have complied with your obligations hereunder, including, without limitation, those obligations set forth in Paragraphs 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20 and 21 of this Agreement.

OUR ENFORCEMENT RIGHTS AND REMEDIES IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH

25. Cessation of Severance for Breach. You acknowledge that any severance payments made to you are, in part, in consideration of your continuing obligations under this Agreement following your separation from Employment for any reason. You therefore agree that if the Employer determines, in its sole but reasonable discretion, that you have breached or threatened to breach this Agreement, including, but not limited to, your duties and obligations under the terms and conditions of Paragraphs 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21 and 22, the Employer shall be entitled to cease making severance payments to you. The Employer shall resume such payments only in the event of a final non-appealable determination in your favor that no such breach or threatened breach occurred.

26. Equitable Relief and Attorney's Fees. You acknowledge and agree that a breach of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, a breach of your duties and obligations under the terms and conditions of Paragraphs 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20 and 21 would cause irreparable harm to the Deloitte Entities and that, in the event of such a breach or threatened breach, in addition to other remedies, the Employer on behalf of itself or another Deloitte Entity is entitled to a temporary restraining order, an injunction or other equitable relief to prevent any such breach. You also acknowledge that, to the extent permitted by law, a Deloitte Entity will be entitled to the payment of the Deloitte Entities' reasonable costs and attorney's fees incurred in enforcing this Agreement. If, under applicable law, the foregoing cannot be enforced without also giving you the right to recover attorneys' fees and costs if deemed the prevailing party, then the foregoing sentence shall not apply and both parties shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs instead. The Employer shall be deemed the prevailing party if it is awarded any part of the legal or equitable relief it seeks, irrespective of whether some of the relief it seeks is denied or modified. You further acknowledge that, to the extent permitted by law, the Employer may request that a court extend the two-year period following the termination of your Employment, as provided in Paragraphs 17 and 20, to correspond with the period that you participated in activities prohibited by Paragraphs 17 and 20, not to exceed four years after your Employment.

27. Liquidated Damages: Client Fees. You agree that the precise amount of damages flowing from a breach under Paragraph 17 would be impracticable or extremely difficult to ascertain in an actual amount. Therefore, you agree that in the event of a breach under Paragraph 17, the Employer shall be entitled to receive, as liquidated damages, payment from you of an amount equal to 50% of all fees received by or owed to you (or any person or entity with which you are associated) in connection with such breach. Such percentage shall be paid within thirty days after each fee payment is received and in respect of all services in connection with such breach during the four years following the termination of your Employment for any reason. This liquidated damages remedy covers only part of the damages caused by a violation. It is not a complete remedy and shall be in addition to and not in lieu of the issuance of injunctive relief to prevent further violations or secure specific performance.

28. Liquidated Damages: Compensation. You agree that the precise amount of damages flowing from a breach under Paragraph 20 would be impracticable or extremely difficult to ascertain in an actual amount. Therefore, you agree that in the event of a breach under Paragraph 20, the Employer shall be entitled to receive, as liquidated damages, payment from you of an amount equal to the annual compensation, inclusive of overtime, bonuses, and sales incentives, received by or owed over the last twelve months at the Employer to any person who leaves the Employer in connection with your breach. Such amount shall be paid within thirty days from the mailing of a written notice to you advising of the amount due. This liquidated damages remedy covers only part of the damages caused by a violation. It is not a complete remedy and shall be in addition to and not in lieu of the issuance of injunctive relief to prevent further violations or secure specific performance.

29. Right of Inspection. You agree to permit the Employer (or to use your best efforts to enable the Employer) to inspect your books and records (and the books and records of any entity which employs or is associated or affiliated with you), upon request and at reasonable times, to enable the Employer to confirm the calculations described above and to verify compliance with Paragraphs 17 and 20. The Employer shall keep confidential any proprietary information obtained, except as may be necessary or desirable to enable the Employer to enforce its rights under this Agreement and except as may be required by any statute, court or administrative order or decree, or government ruling or regulation.

MISCELLANEOUS

30. Governing Law; Choice of Forum. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia. You further agree to accept service of process from the Employer when that process is either sent to your last known address by certified mail or served by any other means permitted under the law of the state or district in which the Employer may bring an action against you.

31. Modifications. Your obligations hereunder may not be changed or modified, released, discharged, abandoned or terminated, in whole or in part, except by an instrument in writing which expressly refers to and attaches this Agreement and is signed by an Authorized Signatory.

32. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be separate and severable. If any term or provision is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such term or provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law and, in any event, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Agreement.

33. Blue-Penciling. If any court determines that any provision of this Agreement, or any part hereof, or the application of any such provision, or any part hereof, to any person or circumstance is unenforceable or void, such court shall have the power to modify such provision (such as to time, scope or geography), or any part hereof, to the extent necessary to render it legal and enforceable while preserving its intent, or if such modification is not possible, by substituting therefore another provision that is legal and enforceable and that achieves the same objective.

34. Waiver. None of your obligations under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived by the Employer except by an instrument in writing which expressly refers to and attaches this Agreement and is signed by an Authorized Signatory. No such waiver shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other or further obligation you have under this Agreement.

35. Integration. This Agreement, the Employer's employment application, any documentation promoting you or transferring you to the Employer, and your offer letter (and any attachments thereto), if applicable, contain the entire understanding between you and the Employer or any other Deloitte Entity with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior representations, warranties, and agreements with respect to such subject matter, and no representations, warranties or other covenants exist with respect to such subject matter that are not contained or expressly referred to herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any written agreement between a Deloitte Entity and you with respect to the subject matter hereof that was signed by you prior to the effective date of this Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable according to the terms of such agreement with respect to all acts and omissions occurring prior to the effective date of this Agreement. DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Deloitte USA LLP, Deloitte LLP and their respective subsidiaries (collectively, “we”, “us” or “Company”) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures related to the use of DocuSign and/or electronic signatures (“Disclosures”). Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such Disclosures electronically through the DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) electronic signing system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' checkbox.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign signer account, you may access them for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.0000 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive Disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required Disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future Disclosures in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive Disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required Disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required Disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper Disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope instead of signing it. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required Disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required Disclosures electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All Disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all Disclosures that are required to be provided or made available to you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any Disclosures, we prefer to provide all of the required Disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the Disclosures electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the Disclosures electronically from us.

How to contact Deloitte:

You may contact us to let us know of your changes as to how we may contact you electronically, to request paper copies of certain information from us, and to withdraw your prior consent to receive Disclosures electronically as follows:

To advise Deloitte of your new e-mail address

To let us know of a change in your e-mail address where we should send Disclosures electronically to you, you must send an email message to us at Deloitte Global eSignature Support and in the body of such request you must state: your previous e-mail address and your new e-mail address. We do not require any other information from you to change your email address. In addition, you must notify DocuSign, Inc. to arrange for your new email address to be reflected in your DocuSign account by following the process for changing e-mail in the DocuSign system.

To request paper copies from Deloitte

To request delivery from us of paper copies of the Disclosures previously provided by us to you electronically, you must send us an e-mail to Deloitte Global eSignature Support and in the body of such request you must state your e-mail address, full name, US Postal address, and telephone number.

To withdraw your consent with Deloitte

To inform us that you no longer want to receive future Disclosures in electronic format you may:

- i. decline to sign a document from within your DocuSign session, and on the subsequent page, select the check-box indicating you wish to withdraw your consent, or you may;
- ii. send us an e-mail to Deloitte Global eSignature Support and in the body of such request you must state your e-mail, full name, US Postal Address, and telephone number. We do not need any other information from you to withdraw consent. The consequences of your withdrawing consent for online documents will be that transactions may take a longer time to process.
